Inset Day 4: Friday 9th March 2018

Inset Day 5: Monday 23rd July 2018

Celebration Assemblies

Golden Mention:

- Cassatt – Joseph B for doing some great phonics work today.
Lowry – Bobby-blue S for always trying his best in everything he does.
Matisse – Isaac H for challenging himself with his English.
Picasso – Harry S for showing really careful listening skills.
Gauguin – Eunice N for working hard on ensuring her work is always neatly presented.
Van Gogh – Louis H for a fab first week at CKS!
Da Vinci – Leah G, Jess S and Seren M for the note taking during our science lesson this week.

Golden Person:

- Cassatt – Joshua C for taking such a keen interest in our learning about Narwhals. Joshua then wrote several questions about them independently.
Lowry – Maisie T for sharing her excellent ideas in Maths. Well done for remembering the sneaky number 10 hiding in the number 15!
Matisse – Jenna S for always sharing her great ideas.
Picasso – Zara B for talking to all her peers politely and in a friendly manner.
Gauguin – Toby Y for leading a science investigation about melting and cooling.
Van Gogh – Kate D M for being a great new member of Year 5!
Da Vinci – Jessica H for her knowledge of vocab and its meaning from the 'Charles Dickens' text studied as holiday home learning.

Sports Award:

- Lowry – Isabelle B for getting 'man of the match' in football!
Matisse – Tom C for showing great hockey skills.
Picasso – Betty E for showing honesty in cricket.

Poetry Writing Competition

Key Stage 2 are taking part in an exciting poetry writing competition as part of their home learning! On Friday, the children will be bringing home a Rhyme Craft leaflet. All the instructions are enclosed in this leaflet. Please return the poem to your class teacher by Friday 26th January so this will be a home learning activity for the next two weeks.

Bustagroove - Places still available

There are still spaces available on the Bustagroove dance club held on Fridays after school. Please pick up a booking form from school reception if your child is interested in attending.
